Thermaster Temperature Controller

Description

Temperature Controller

The Thermaster is a fully automatic temperature controller which will operate without attention once set up. Supplied complete with 0·5m acidproof probe length with a 2m lead as standard, with longer lengths available to order. The enclosure is designed for surface mount making it suitable for operation at the point of use and is completely moisture proof sealed to IP65. It has a large clear display.

Key features

- Acidproof
- Permanent clear display of solution temperature
- Simple set point adjustment
- Easy to calibrate

Used By

- Steel Strip Wire & Tube Pickling
- Chemical Plants
- Metal Finishers
- Galvanising
- Glass Producers
- Aerospace Industry
- Chemical Milling

BRAUDE Products will not corrode